About this notice

Mohammed Ahmad, MD (“we”, “our”, or “us”) is committed to protecting your medical information (“Medical Information”). This notice tells you how we may use and disclose your Medical Information. It also describes your rights regarding your Medical Information. We are required by law to maintain the privacy of your Medical Information; give you this Notice of our legal duties and privacy practices regarding your Medical Information; notify you following a breach of your unsecured Medical Information; and follow the terms of our current Notice. The privacy practices described in this Notice will be followed by all health care professionals, employees, medical staff, trainees, students, and volunteers of Mohammed Ahmad, MD. A copy of this Notice is available to you in the waiting room.

Mohammed Ahmad, MD may use and disclose your Medical Information in the following ways:

The following categories describe different ways that we use and disclose Medical Information without your written permission. A “use” of your Medical Information means sharing, accessing, or analyzing Medical Information within Mohammed Ahmad, MD. A “disclosure” of your Medical Information means sharing, releasing, or giving access to your Medical Information to a person or company outside Mohammed Ahmad, MD. Not every use or disclosure in a category will be listed. However, all of the ways we are allowed to use or disclose your Medical Information should fall within one of these categories:

Treatment We may use and disclose your Medical Information to give you medical care. For example, we may use your Medical Information to write a prescription or treat an injury. We may also share Medical Information about you for treatment purposes with other people or entities in Mohammed Ahmad, MD. To coordinate the different things you need, such as x-rays, lab work, or prescriptions, we may also disclose Medical Information to non- Mohammed Ahmad, MD health care providers.

Payment We may use and disclose your Medical Information to bill and be paid for your treatment. For example, we may give your health insurer information about your treatment so your insurer can pay for it. If a bill is overdue, we may give your Medical Information to a collection agency to help collect payment. We may also provide Medical Information to other health care providers, such as ambulance companies, to assist in their billing efforts.

Health Care Operations We may use and disclose Medical Information for health care operation purposes. These uses and disclosures are necessary to make sure that all of our patients receive quality care and for management purposes. For example, we may use Medical Information to check how well our staff cared for you. The entities and individuals covered by this Notice also may share information with each other for their joint health care operations.

Appointment Reminders We may use and disclose Medical Information to contact and remind you about your appointments. If you do not answer the call, we may leave this information on your answering machine or voicemail.

Sign In Sheet We may use and disclose Medical Information about you by having you sign in when you arrive at our office. We may also call out your name when we are ready to see you.

Individuals Involved in Your Care or Payment for Your Care We may disclose Medical Information to a person who is involved in your medical care or helps pay for your care, such as family member or friend. We may also notify your family about your location or general condition or disclose such information to an entity assisting in a disaster relief effort.

Business Associates We may disclose Medical Information to third parties so that they can perform a job we have asked them to do. For example, we may use another company to perform billing services on our behalf. All of these third parties are required to protect the privacy and security of your Medical Information.

Lawsuits and Disputes If you are involved in a lawsuit or a dispute, we may disclose Medical Information in response to a court or administrative order. Under certain circumstances, we also may disclose Medical Information in response to a subpoena or discovery request by someone else involved in the dispute.

Personal Representative If you have a personal representative, such as a legal guardian, we will treat that person the same as you with respect to disclosures of your Medical Information. If you die, we may disclose Medical Information to an executor or administrator or your estate to the extent that person is acting as your personal representative.

Research Under certain circumstances, we may use and disclose Medical Information for research purposes. For example, a research project may involve comparing the health of patients who received one treatment to those who received another, for the same condition. Before we use or disclose health information for research, the project will go through a special approval process. Even without special approval, we may permit researchers to look at records to help them identify patients who may be included in their research project or for other similar purposes, as long as they do not remove or take a copy of any health information.

As Required by Law We will disclose your Medical Information when required to do so by international, federal, state, or local law.

To Avert a Serious Threat to Health or Safety We may use and disclose Medical Information when necessary, in our professional judgment, to prevent a serious threat to your health and safety or the health and safety of the public or another person.

Public Health Purposes We may disclose Medical Information for public health purposes. Some examples of the purposes are: reporting births and deaths; reporting communicable diseases to health officials; reporting child abuse or neglect; or reporting elder abuse, neglect or exploitation.

Organ and Tissue Donation If you are an organ or tissue donor, we may release Medical Information to organizations that handle organ procurement or organ, eye or tissue transplantation or to an organ donation bank, as necessary, to facilitate organ or tissue donation or transplantation.

Workers' Compensation We may disclose Medical Information for Workers' Compensation or similar programs that provide benefits for work-related injuries or illness.

Health Oversight Activities We may disclose Medical Information to a health oversight agency for authorized government review of the health care system, civil rights and privacy laws, and compliance with government programs.

Law Enforcement We may disclose Medical Information to law enforcement officials. Some examples of these types of disclosures are: in response to a valid court order, subpoena or search warrant; to identify or locate a suspect, fugitive or missing person, or to report a crime committed on Mohammed Ahmad, MD premises.

National Security and Intelligence Activities and Protective Services We may disclose Medical Information to authorized federal officials for intelligence and other national security activities permitted by law.

Coroners, Medical Examiners and Funeral Directors We may disclose Medical Information to coroners, medical examiners or funeral directors so they can do their jobs.

Special Protections for HIV, Alcohol and Substance Abuse, Mental Health and Genetic Information Special privacy protections apply to HIV-related information, alcohol abuse treatment information, mental health information, and genetic information. This means that parts of this Notice may not apply to these types of information because stricter privacy requirements may apply. Mohammed Ahmad, MD will only disclose this information as permitted by applicable state and federal laws. If your treatment involves this information, you may contact our Privacy Officer to ask about the special protections.

Other Uses of Medical Information Other uses and disclosures of Medical Information not covered by this Notice or the laws that apply to us will be made only with your written authorization. For example, most uses and disclosures of psychotherapy notes, uses and disclosures of Medical Information for marketing purposes, and disclosures that constitute a sale of medical Information require your written authorization.

You may cancel that authorization at any time by sending a written request to our Privacy Officer. We are unable to take back any disclosures we have already made with your authorization.

Your Medical Information Rights

The records we maintain about your health care are the property of Mohammed Ahmad, MD. To protect your privacy, we may check your identity when you have questions about treatment or billing issues. We will also confirm the identity and authority of anyone who ask to review, copy or amend Medical Information or to obtain a list of disclosures of Medical Information as described below. These are your specific rights, subject to certain limitations, regarding Medical Information we maintain about you.

Right to Obtain a Paper Copy of This Notice You have the right to a paper copy of this Notice at any time.

Right to Inspect and Copy In general, you have the right to inspect and copy your Medical Information. If you request a copy of your Medical Information, we may charge a reasonable fee for the cost of labor, postage, and supplies associated with your request. If the Medical Information you request is maintained electronically, we will provide you access to the Medical Information in an agreed-upon electronic format.

We may deny your request to inspect, copy or send Medical Information in certain limited circumstances. If you are denied access to Medical Information, you may request that the denial be reviewed.

Right to Request Amendments If you feel that Medical Information we have about you is incorrect or incomplete, you may ask us to amend the information or to make an addition to your record. You have the right to request this for as long as we maintain the information. To request an amendment, please submit your written request, along with a reason that supports it, to our Privacy Officer. If we accept your request, we will tell you and amend your records. We cannot take out what is in the record, but we will supplement the information. If we deny your request for amendment, you may submit a statement of disagreement, to which Mohammed Ahmad, MD may choose to respond in writing. In addition, you have the right to request that Mohammed Ahmad, MD send a copy of your amendment request and your statement of disagreement (if any) with any future disclosures of your Medical Information.

Right to an Accounting of Disclosures You have the right to request a list of certain of our disclosures of your Medical Information. The first list you request in a 12 month period will be free. For additional lists, we may charge you for the costs of providing the list. To request an accounting of disclosures, please submit your request to our Privacy Officer using the contact information above.

Right to Request Restrictions You have the right to request a restriction or limitation on the Medical Information we use or disclose about you for treatment, payment, or health care operations. You also have the right to request that we disclose a limited amount of Medical Information to someone involved in your care or involved in payment for your care. We are not required to agree to your restriction request. If we do agree, we will notify you in writing and will honor our agreement unless we need to use or disclose the information to provide emergency treatment to you or if the law requires us to disclose it. We will agree to your request to restrict disclosure of your Medical Information to a health plan if the disclosure is for the purpose of payment or health care operations; is not otherwise required by law; and the Medical Information you wish to restrict pertains solely to a health care item or service for which you, or someone other than your health plan, has paid in full.

Right to Request Confidential Communications You have the right to request that we communicate with you about health matters in a certain way or at a certain location. For example, you can ask that we only contact you at work or by e-mail. We will honor all reasonable requests. However, if we are unable to contact you using your requested methods or locations, we may contact you using any information we have.

Right to Notice of a Breach of Certain Medical Information We are required to notify you by first class mail or e-mail (if you have told us you prefer to receive information by e-mail), of a breach of your Medical Information. A breach is any unauthorized acquisition, access, use, or disclosure of certain categories of Medical Information that compromises the security or privacy of this Medical Information.

Changes to this Notice

We reserve the right to change this Notice. We reserve the right to make the revised or changed Notice effective for Medical Information we already have as well as any information we receive in the future. We will post a copy of the current Notice at Mohammed Ahmad, MD facility and on our website. The beginning of our Notice will contain the notice's effective date.

Complaints

You may file a written or verbal complaint with us if you believe your privacy rights have been violated. If you have any privacy-related questions or complaints, please contact our Privacy Officer using one of the methods listed above. You may also file a complaint with the Secretary of the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services. We support your right to privacy of your Medical Information and you will not be penalized for filing a complaint.
